

Annex 6-Glossary

Academic calendar	Calendar which shows semester/term dates, usually including teaching blocks, examination times, and graduations.
Accredited	Officially recognized; authorized; certified
Approval board	The board which will make recommendations to the contracting authority about the applicants on the final shortlist and the reserve list.
Assessors	Professionals who will assess the applicants' applications and performance (motivation letter) during the selection process
Breach of contract	Failure to meet the terms set out in the contract
Certificate of employment	official, letterhead document from an employer stating the applicant's employment dates, job title, responsibilities and duties in the work place
Cumulatively	In total (can be distributed to different time periods)
Current valid address	Registered address of the applicant.
Distance programme	A method of studying in which lectures are broadcasted or lessons are conducted in a digital environment without the student needing to attend a school or college.
Donor	An organization or institution which gives out grants.
Eligibility criteria	Criteria set to define who can apply for a grant.
English speaking schools	Schools where courses are mainly taught in English language.
EU host country	The EU member country where the applicant is planning to study.
EU host institution	The education, training or research institution of the EU member country where the applicant is planning to study.
EU Member States	Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus (excluding the northern part), Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Republic of Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, and the UK
EU Official Languages	Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovene, Spanish, and Swedish
Fabricated	Faked; false
Family or child allowances	Additional payment for those who take their family or child(ren) to the host country with them.
Full-time programme	Applicants must ensure that what they are intending to apply for is considered a full-time programme by the host institution. For language courses to be considered full-time, minimum 20 hours a week is required.

Foundation programme/year	A one-year course that bridges the gap between qualifications gained in your home country and those required for entry to university courses. It is an introduction to subjects and may or may not cover language course.
Grantee/grant beneficiary/scholar / nominee	The applicant who is awarded a scholarship. These terms are used interchangeably.
Graduates	Individuals who have completed high school, undergraduate or postgraduate education.
Healthcare coverage / health insurance	Healthcare coverage covers the cost of an individual's medical, surgical expenses and sometimes cost of medicine.
Higher education	Post-secondary/school education.
Higher education institution	Universities or other tertiary level institutions such as colleges, art institutions, business schools, and agricultural colleges, etc.
Internship	Placement of a student or trainee who works in an organization, without pay, in order to gain work experience.
Language of the programme of study	One of the 24 official EU languages in which the chosen programme of study is taught/delivered.
Lump sum	A single payment.
New/recent graduate	a person who has been awarded a first degree from a university or college within the last 3 years i.e. 2015/16, 2016/17, 2017/18
Official transcripts of academic achievement	Documents (transcripts) issued by the education institution, showing the courses taken and the grades obtained over the course of an academic programme.
Parental consent form	Form to be signed by the parent(s) of successful applicants, who are below the age of 18, to show their agreement
Part-time programme	Host institutions definition of the number of hours or credits in a program which is not full-time.
Postgraduate course	Postgraduate courses are higher education courses that require that learners have already completed a bachelor's degree; most types of postgraduate courses will include taught and research elements.
Postgraduate degree	Postgraduate degrees generally fall into four categories: postgraduate certificate, postgraduate diploma, master's degree, doctorate/PhD.
Preparatory year	See foundation year .
Professional courses	Courses to improve one's career and technical skills- not necessarily taken to obtain a qualification
Professionals	Individuals who have developed careers and have professions. Professionals may or may not be employed at the time of application.
Professional training programme	Specific training programme that relates to an individual's work that requires specific skills.

Ranking order	Order of candidates according to their total scores, usually from highest to lowest.
Raw score	Real score obtained on a test before it is converted to any other form or scores/percentages.
Receiving institution	The institution which accepts the grantee for study.
Reserve list	List of candidates who have not been nominated for the grant but will be considered in case there are changes in the nominee list.
Summary total/summary score	The total score a candidate accumulates from all the tests throughout the selection process: LPT, GAT, ML and interview.
Ranking list	List of candidates' scores from highest to lowest.
T-score	Standardized scores on each dimension for each type
Turkish speaking schools	Schools where courses are mainly taught in Turkish language.
Unconditional offer / acceptance /invitation letter	Official communication (in the form of a letter) from the education institution stating that they accept the applicant without any further requirement.
Undergraduate course /education	Includes all the academic programs, above secondary education and below postgraduate education, up to the level of a bachelor's degree.
Undergraduate degree	Also called first degree , bachelor's degree or simply degree is an academic degree usually offered at an institution of higher education such as a university or a college . The most common type of this degree is the bachelor's degree which typically takes at least three or four years to complete.
Withdrawal from the programme	Ceasing to participate in the scholarship programme.
Withdrawal of grant	Taking back an awarded grant from the scholar for reasons outlined in the guidelines.